Transact Acquires Quickcharge; Expanding Scale and Innovation Across a Variety of Campus Environments

Acquisition Enables Company to Expand and Leverage Quickcharge's Dining and Retail Platform Across K-12 Education, Healthcare, Corporate, and Government Campuses

SCOTTSDALE, AZ – October 3, 2023 – Transact Campus, Inc., "Transact," the award-winning leader in innovative campus technology and payment solutions, today announced the acquisition of Quickcharge, a dining and retail technology platform for K-12, Healthcare, Corporate, and Government campuses.

Operating as a division of MM Hayes, Quickcharge has consistently demonstrated its value by offering comprehensive solutions including cashless payments and transactions via point of sale (POS), kiosk and mobile ordering to more than 575 clients. Incorporating Quickcharge's diverse offerings and talented team strengthens Transact's ability to grow their campus software solution offerings and reinforces the company's position as the leading provider of software and mobile solutions to campus environments.

"The acquisition of Quickcharge is a pivotal moment that enables Transact to cross-sell and scale complementary, purpose-built solutions to a wider variety of campus settings," said Nancy Langer, CEO, Transact. "The union of our businesses enhances the value Dining Service Providers can offer and paves the way for collaboration and channel growth. Many of Transact's higher-ed clients operate hospitals on campus. Aligning with Quickcharge's complementary product offerings expands the Transact footprint and helps ensure that our solutions remain at the forefront of innovation in these unique environments."

The acquisition aligns seamlessly with market demands, and signals Transact's commitment to enhancing its range of products and transferability across campuses. By incorporating Quickcharge's capabilities, Transact broadens its integrated solutions roadmap, leveraging its diverse and dedicated expertise in the campus software and mobile solutions space.

"Quickcharge's proven history of providing seamless technology solutions for the Healthcare, Corporate, K-12, and Government campuses perfectly complements Transact's strategic vision," explained David Hayes, CEO, Quickcharge. "We are poised to help Transact expand its footprint across a multitude of sectors, and step into a new chapter, where our combined strengths will bring unprecedented value to our clients and varied campuses to spur ongoing growth for Transact."

Ultimately, this acquisition positions Transact as a formidable player, continuing to redefine campus software and mobile solutions.
